TWO PILLARS

The Boostzone Institute relies on two pillars: a public website and a private platform for its members.

1. The blog, www.boostzone.fr, is the public and visible part of the Boostzone Institute where our fellows communicate their knowledge and share it.
2. "Le Cercle" is a private group of professionals eager to develop and exchange on the implementation of Network Centric management in their organization.

OUR MEMBERS

The membership of "Le Cercle" is composed of:

- Business and thought leaders who focus on organizational issues, who want to understand how networks and communities impact the practice of management;
- Community managers who face the daily challenge of energizing their communities and keeping them vibrant in the long-term;
- Change management professionals and business transformation consultants who assist their clients in developing business-driven networks and communities through various collaboration technologies;
- Collaboration software providers, who need to exchange opinions and best practices on how to motivate users to participate, how to develop people through technology etc.

OUR SCIENTIFIC COMMITTEE

Its mission is twofold: guide the research directions from the Institute; give their opinions on the potential "fellows" who could publish on the public website of the Institute. This committee is composed of senior executives in large organizations :
